“ Dear Cousin,
In our younger days, the age gap between us did not allow us to be too close, but I always admired your style. Young girls are often interested in the things of older girls. When we would come to visit , I would sneak into your room (when you weren't looking) just so I could admire your collection of treasures displayed on your shelves. When we were older your style really reflected you. I loved how you would decorate your home, making it so inviting and warm. It didn't matter if it was your first small home on the east side or your home there on Moontide, I always smiled at your style. It was a little arts and craftsy mixed with inspiration and a lot of photos of family and friends. Always so much laughter and conversation.
You could have won a conversation contest , if there was such a thing. You had a gift. You could talk to anyone, anywhere and it wasn't odd or strange. It was like your style, warm and inviting, a little arts and craftsy and a lot of inspiration.

“ I remember Andrea from the Elrod days. She always had a smile and some advice. She was always willing to help any way that would help our Eagles 🦅. Fun memories of stopping by on Halloween night and having a glass of wine while kids got treats. Love to all her family

“ Andrea and I met in kindergarten at St. Martin Hall. I’ve known her since we were 4 years old. Our birthdays are 2 days apart so we celebrated them together. In the first picture, we’re at a restaurant celebrating our birthdays with my family. In the second picture we’re celebrating our 8th grade graduation from St. Martin Hall. I remember our sleepovers and will never forget how she was the first person to teach me humility, love, and gratitude. She taught me how to share and how beautiful a friendship could be. Rest In Peace My Best Friend until we meet again

“ Thanksgiving 2004, we all got together before I left on my first deployment. Andrea sent me care packages throughout my deployment; snacks, Big Red, CDs, DVDs. On my down-time I would listen to the cool Alternative CD she made me and watch the movies she sent. There was one DVD called Ali G that I kept putting off because I had no idea who he was and it didn't look like something I'd like. But after watching all the rest of her movies I popped it in. It was hilarious. Andrea knew I would like it. Thank you Andrea for those packages and helping me through the lonely times while I was away.

I'll miss you.

Love, your cousin Michael

“ My sweet cousin Andrea. There are so many memories of holidays, summers, family get together's. One vivid memory was the two of us, maybe 5 or 6 years old, standing at the table in the family area at y'all's house and you telling me that Santa didn't exist. I thinking was in shock because I don't remember asking you how you knew for sure but I do know that I believed you, but I played it off for a few more years for "just in case" lol. Rest In Peace, give Uncle Albert and all our relatives a big hug for me. Love you always.

“ I think we were celebrating my son's birthday early 2000's. My parents were there and we were all so happy to catch up with Andrea. She was my best friend at SMH and my parents used to always say, "Why can't you be more like Andrea?" She's the most thoughtful and kind friend I've ever had. Rest in Peace, you will always remain my Best Friend in my heart. My deepest condolences to her family. Her strength and positive energy will always be remembered. May she dance with her father in Heaven. Until we meet again, Andrea...

“ Andrea was a long time BGF of our beloved daughter Stacie. They shared a fun childhood across the street from each other as children until Adulthood in Forest Oaks, Leon Valley. They shared one of those amazing friendships some never experience in their lives. They constantly were back and forth to each others houses. Planning their play dates and later talking about dates, friends and getting into some mischief together.

Andrea was the quite one, shy, Stacie the chatterer, she shown through in such a lovely way, and was ever patient for her turn to talk. Always laughing at herself and encouraging to others. We lost our Stacie and she missed her dear friend so, she was known to" visit" her and Tom at home shortly after her death. They both assured me it was Stacie, walking down the hall in her flipflops come to visit. She apparently returned to "look in" on Andrea's young children. Causing Danielle to come to her parents and say that" Lady in the picture" is in my room again. Pointing to a picture of Stacie, that Andrea had displayed.

I hope Stacie and Andrea are together again, after being apart 26 years, now in Heaven, their shining spirits together for Eternity. God Bless you Andrea your gentle soul. RIP. A wonderful Mother and Daughter, and friend. You fought a courageous, and long fight against MS, a terrible debilitating illness. You are free of that body and soaring among the Stars, the Angels and God.

Our prayers and sympathy go out to the Garza and Guerrero families.
