James "Jimmy" Michael Parker

March 12, 1954 - May 26, 2023

“Jimmy” James Michael Parker, often known as Jim, passed away on May 26th just outside of San Antonio, Texas. Jim was so many things to so many people, a friend, mentor, hero, comedian, engineer etc. However, his favorite roles by far were that of a loving husband and a devoted father.

Anyone who knew Jim knows he lived his entire life as a force of nature, always making a memorable impact everywhere he went; in a cowboy hat and boots. He was born in San Antonio Texas on March 12, 1954. He ran the streets with his brothers, known as a productive menace. He graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 1971.

After high School he enlisted in the United States Army where he proudly served his country as an Army Ranger, leading over a hundred successful search and rescue missions. Jim returned home and continued to serve as an Airborne Ranger instructor at Fort Benning in “good old Georgia”. Following his service for the Military, Jim transitioned into the building industry, working for The Wolff family at Alamo Enterprises, having his own following of “Parker Raiders”. From there, he owned his own trucking company on Trainer Hale Road in San Antonio, and then went on to build Vision Products (a window manufacturing business) in Mexico from the ground up.

Jim waited nearly four decades to settle down, living the bachelor life as “Gator”, beloved founding member of the infamous GAR ski club. After finding and persistently pursuing the woman of his dreams, he married his best friend, the love of his life, Cynde Corley on July 25, 1992. Jim later achieved his biggest goal in life and greatest joy by becoming a father and grandfather, and raising his three precious daughters and one grandson with Cynde in the house he built on Lake Placid in Seguin, Texas.

During his time in Seguin Jim went by many titles and played many roles in numerous lives. Never knowing a stranger he built countless lasting, meaningful connections and relationships with his big hugs and “bad” jokes. There was hardly a person in the community who didn’t know Jim Parker. Everyone he crossed paths with was changed for the better and was left with the best story, memory, or laugh.

In October 2000, Jim joined the Steves & Sons team. He was an integral component of the manufacturing plant updates to state-of-the art facilities with his innovations. He naturally added ‘Jimventions’ and ‘Jimgineering’ to refine the overall manufacturing methods.

Jim studied the timing of every process, knew the RPM of every motor and was truly the first call resource in all elements of door manufacturing. Jim was deeply engrained operationally at Steves and Sons, and was the original “Steves Patriot”, a title he coined for those who give 100%.

From his start in 2000, until today, Jim’s advancement of Steves manufacturing capabilities garnered at least a five-fold growth in productivity, with significant capacity remaining. Jim loved few things more than pridefully parading people through facilities in Virginia, Tennessee, Texas and most recently, Brigham City, Utah.

Jim was a virtual icon in the millwork industry. Often referred to as “The Cowboy”, Jim could not attend a tradeshow for machinery or building materials without being recognized by someone at nearly every booth. Of course, that resulted in the sharing of jokes, stories and friendship. Jim rightfully prided himself in the relationships he built and that was shared by all that knew him.

Jim’s legacy extends to countless households and hearts from coast to coast. His impact is never more present than with those he loved the most: Cynde, Casey, Corley-Ann, Sarah, and Jaxson.

Jim is survived by Cynde, his wife of 31 years, his three daughters; Casey, Corley-Ann, and Sarah, his grandson Jaxson, his son-in-law Paul, as well as four brothers Weldon, Bruce, Charles and Douglas, and his sister Peggy. Extended family includes Waymon and Mary Corley, David and Belinda Corley, Debi and Delton Hartwick, numerous cherished nieces and nephews; and multiple generations of the Wolff family.

Visitation will be held from 6:00 - 8:00 PM on Monday, June 5, 2023 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Memorial services will be held at 10:00 AM on Tuesday, June 6, 2023 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South.

As the anniversary of Jim's passing nears this month, I had the opportunity to share stories of Jim with a coworker from Texas today and while there were tears and we got choked up, we also were able to remember one of the greatest guys we have ever known and there was a lot of laughter as we shared stories with each other.
I will always be grateful to Jim for the opportunity he extended to me and for believing in me. He changed my life for the better and I am glad I got the chance to tell him that.
I often think and pray for Cyndi, his girls and grandson and they have become a part of my prayers and I hope they are doing well as they have an angel in heaven watching over them.

Jim recruited me for the position I have now at Steves & Sons RICDP division 9 years ago. I will be forever grateful to Jim for that. Jim left an impression on everyone he met as he was such a down to earth genuine person. Wasn't a visit to the plant by him that he wasn't asked how our favorite cowboy was doing.
Cyndi, my prayers are with you and your girls and grandson and I pray you all find peace and comfort knowing Jim is watching over you all.

My sincere condolences to his family.

When I found out the horrible news about Jim, like many others close to him, I was stunned and in denial. How could this happen to the man of steel? This just wasn't right. As reality sank in, my mind was flooded with many memories of our time together.
My personal stories of friendship with Jim Parker are some of those gathered from a lifetime of memories. We became friends at age 16 and he and his family lived on the next block. We both grew up in San Antonio and went to Robert E. Lee (renamed Lee High School). Jim and I also worked at the same lumberyard, Alamo Enterprise, within walking distance from our houses. We would go to work after school and work until sometimes 1:00 in the morning loading 18-wheeler flatbed trucks for the following day's delivery and unloading railroad boxcars of lumber then placing the material in the marked locations in the lumber yard. We also went to the building sites of apartment construction and unloaded many trailers full of 4X8X12' sheetrock, carrying them in the framed structures, sometimes every 2nd and third floor. All this and somehow, we didn't miss our classes over the years and graduated in 1971. Looking back, I'm sure it was our determination and feeling of duty to attend as expected. Before and after his time in the U.S. Army he would help me on projects at our house. Among the projects, we put on a new roof, fixed plumbing, and painted the house exterior. He always wanted to help. Jim was like a brother and my family treated him as such. He always filled any room he entered. Always moving forward at a fast pace, never sitting still for long. He had a huge heart and a steel-trap mind. His intelligence and ability to recall past events in detail were admirable.
I know Jim loved his family and treasured the time spent with them. He was proud of his wife, children, and grandson. I believe Jim was getting to a time in his life where he was planning on transitioning into retirement from his fast-paced job. Yes, but retirement for Jim would have been still keeping busy each day but would be spending much more time with his family.
He will certainly be missed. Rest in peace, my friend.

Jim Parker and the Steves Family blessed me with an opportunity to create a small business,allowing me to provide a better life for my family. Jim, thank you for all the blood,sweat and tears in our tenure together. I'm never going to forget the arguments,accomplishments and the deep minded early morning discussions we would have together. I will always be honored to help,work and fix anything Cynde or your daughters need. I may not be able to do it exactly the way you want it done, but I will always do my best and not leave out any screws. RIP Jim

I worked with Jim on the structural engineering side of the Brigham City project. I live in Utah and met him on this project so I only knew him a short time but I can tell you they don't get more genuine than Cowboy Jim. He was a go-er, always walking and keeping things moving along. I asked him once if he ever kept track of how many steps he got in a day and he said his family got him a tracker and he was regularly topping 30k steps a day! He always had a plan of how he was going to accomplish something and knew what he wanted. He gave 110% in all he did and expected everyone around him to do the same. I am glad to have met and worked with Jim and wish condolences to his family and friends.

Cynde, Casey, Corley-Ann, Sarah, and Jaxson, My heart aches for you. I am so sorry. Jim was just bigger than life, and this is hard to grasp.
I have so many memories of Jim over 41 years of friendship. But one of my favorites is the joke we helped Cynde pull on him when he was the best man at our wedding. Jim was of course, too busy to take care of getting his tux rental so Cynde did it for him. He later asked her what the tux looked like, and she straight faced told him it was bright yellow. He said, "Damn, I'm going to look like a giant Easter Bunny." Cynde told us about it and got my entire family to play along. Jim was running late and failed to get the tux before the rehearsal. At the rehearsal, I described the "yellow" tux in great detail, my father stated he and my brother were wearing the same tux, and he loved it as yellow was his favorite color. My mother added that it matched the tent over the wedding guests which was yellow and white striped. Jim was completely convinced he was going to look stupid, but always the good sport, he was going to wear it anyway. When he finally got his tux the day of the wedding, he came out of the dressing room and said, "Uh oh, they gave me the wrong tux" as he stood there in a classic gray Morning Suit." Cynde and my husband Warren cracked up!. They had finally pulled off one on Jim. When he realized he had been punked, he laughed that big hearted laugh he had and said, "Shazam, you got me!" We will miss that laugh.

My condolences to the Parker family and the Steves Organization. I had the pleasure of working with Jim at two different companies in sales. He was a great problem solver, tough (in a good way) and kept you held to a high standard. Also a fast walker when you were trying to keep up with him moving through a plant. All this while talking above the noise of running machinery and hearing him break from your conversation to flip into Spanish with various employees he encountered. It was clear he had a mission of service. You wanted to do well for Jim and know he saw value in you. He was fierce supporter of his organization. Last year I had the chance to get to know Jim more informally at a dinner in Atlanta. Our team left with an even deeper respect for him. We will miss him and were honored to work for him.

Our prayers for Jim's family. Jim was a great guy. I first met him in Little League Softball and here was this guy with a big cowboy hat, jeans, boots and long sleeve shirt operating the pitching machine. I thought who is this guy? I would soon find out what a genuine person he was. We were just talking about Jim last Thursday night and our great cruise in 2016 for Sarah & Madelyn's high school graduation. Jim was not a guy to sit around all day. Everyday he would get up real early and walk around the ship talking to everybody that worked there. Every night at dinner Jim told us what he had done and learned about the ship. He knew every staff or maintenance person on the ship. He got a tour of the engine room and many other areas. He knew everything about the ship---length, width, weight, how many worked on the ship. By the end of the cruise he could have been hired to give tours. Really! All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. I believe Jim Parker was "THE GUY" to get anything done---anything. RIP Jim Parker!!!

My sincere condolences to the Parker family. He was so proud of his wife and girls and absolutely lit up when talking about them. Reading Jim's obituary I could see his grin and twinkle in his eye as he was about to tell one of his jokes. I was always amazed at how he could remember so many jokes! Every conversation started with at least one. But jokes were only one of his talents. I originally met Jim at the Vision Windows plant in Mexico as he toured us through every step of the building process. He was onboard the lean train well before it was a thing. Later, I met Jim again in Nashville at the NSDJA trade show where he mistook me for Carl Detering's daughter. He became a mentor to me. Someone I could call if I was having trouble with a machine or process or even if I needed a place to store a machine for a few months before our new facility was ready. He was incredibly giving of his time and knowledge. And every time we went to lunch or dinner, he always asked for fresh sliced tomatoes. Just one more thing uniquely Jim Parker.

To Mrs. Parker, and the Parker Family. My sincere condolences for your loss.
I had the opportunity to meet Jim back around 2005, as I was hustling for some of his business at Steve's. I immediately connected with him, mostly because he saw fit to connect with a very young salesman who needed some "Jim guidance". I will never forget my interactions with Jim as a business partner, but mostly as the honorable man he was. He was fair, yet demanding. Everything was always right, and if it wasn't, make it right.
After almost 20 years or knowing Jim, and sharing a very small piece of life with him, I am better for it. Thank you for sharing him with so many. In your loss, know that those of us on this side are thinking and praying for each of you. May He bring you peace during this difficult time.

He was a character but, when things got tough for me he always was gentle and caring. He will be missed. I remember when we met you at Jim's house at the lake. He was in love and he loved you the rest of his life. Love and prayers for the family.

My condolences to the Parker family. I worked under Jim's direction for 18 years. I learned a lot from the man. I am sorry for your loss.
