Taline Dadian Infante

May 4, 1956 - April 6, 2013

Taline Dadian Infante, RDH, MS, EdD, died peacefully at home surrounded by family after a six-month battle with illness on April 6, 2013. She was Associate Professor of Periodontics and Director of the Division of Dental Hygiene, at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio UTHSCSA. Educated at Loyola University New Orleans, Old Dominion University and Capella University, Dr. Dadian Infante was a nationally recognized dental hygiene educator. Talley will be remembered for her boundless enthusiasm, kindness, generosity, and selflessness as well as for her professional accomplishments and mentoring of students and faculty. She was preceded in death by her father, Shnork Dadian. Talley is survived by her mother, Ankine Dadian, San Antonio; her husband, Anthony J. Infante, MD, PhD, Professor of Pediatrics at UTHSCSA, and children, Dominic R. Infante of Austin, TX and Sabrina M. Infante of Portland, OR; sister, Annie Dadian-Williams, Bulverde, TX; brother-in-law, Kenneth T. Williams; nephew, Zachariah F. Williams and niece, Sage S. Williams. A Memorial Service will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North on Tuesday, April 16, 2013 at noon. In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family suggests donations to the Taline Dadian Infante Memorial Endowment Scholarship to benefit the dental hygiene program. Details will appear on the UTHSCSA web page.
