Vivian A. Ehlinger

October 7, 1923 - August 24, 2020

Vivian Adeline Ehlinger, 96, of San Antonio, passed away on Monday, August 24, 2020.
Vivian was born on October 7, 1923 to Floy (Humble) and E.O. Caraway in Nixon, Texas.
On August 14, 1942, she married Herbert Ehlinger. They were happily married for 74 years, before his passing in 2016.
During their years together, Vivian and Herbert enjoyed their family, playing bridge and dancing. They were active members of the St. Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church and enjoyed going to breakfast with their church family every Sunday.
In addition to her husband, Herb, she was preceded in death by her parents, son, Ross Ehlinger and sister, Ellouise.
Vivian is survived by her 2 sons, Stephen Ehlinger and Dan Ehlinger, 7 grandchildren, and 6 great grandchildren, and her brother, Kelly Caraway.
Vivian was lovingly known by her grandchildren as Meme. They loved her so much that one grandchild and 2 great grandchildren bear her name. She will be greatly missed but carried in the hearts of many.
A private graveside service was held on Friday, August 28, 2020 at Mission Burial Park North.

Cemetery Details

Mission Burial Park North

20900 IH 10 West
San Antonio, TX 78257

Tribute Wall

JB

Dear Stephen and Dan,
I am so sorry for the passing of your beautiful mother, Vivian Adeline Ehlinger. You had great parents who were devoted to each other and their boys. - Mrs. Ehlinger lived a long time and surpassed so many of her contemporaries. I know her death was not a surprise for you and it was a long battle for her, but it was still very hard to lose a mother. (My husband lost his mother too during the Covid shutdown in March, too. Strange times.)

I know you will miss her every day but you have great memories. God Bless you and your whole family during this time of grief.

Jenice Graham Benedict - MAC 71

Jenice Benedict - September 09, 2020 at 06:04 PM