Yukiko Nakano McManus

July 26, 1927 - March 29, 2012

Yukiko Nakano McManus passed away at home on March 29, 2012 at the age of 84. She was born in Hagi City, Japan; the fourth of five children to Mansaku and Sana Nakano. In post-war Tokyo, she met and married the love of her life Louis McManus USAF. They had three children and moved to San Antonio when he was medically disabled. Widowed at the age of 43, she raised three young children and made America her home. She proudly became a US citizen. Her quiet dignity, fighting spirit, and her strength of character will be missed by her adoring family. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Louis. She is survived by her sisters Tami Bice of Beaverton, Oregon, and Yasuko Nakano of Japan; niece Michiko Nakano of Japan; son Lt. George McManus, daughters Tami McManus and Dr. Keiko McManus and husband Dr. Richard Palmer; grandchildren Laura and Colby McManus, Jaclyn and Kristofer Palmer; great-grandchild Nathan McManus. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Disabled American Veterans.
