

Isabel Garcia

August 2, 1954 - February 10, 2022

Some people only walk this earth for a short time. Their departure reminds us that angels are watching over us. On February 10, 2022, Isabel Garcia rejoined her heavenly family and gained her wings.

Isabel was a compassionate spirit whose passion was caring for her family and friends. She lived a beautifully poetic life from start to end. Isabel shared an amazing legacy with her husband reaching the rare height of 53 years of love and laughter.

Isabel was a dedicated wife, mother, and nana. She treasured her husband, children, and granddaughter. She had a vivacious personality and made people around her laugh. Her love for learning new things, having beautiful experiences, and reading profusely shaped her family into wonderfully successful adults.

Isabel Garcia was born August 2, 1954, in San Antonio, TX. She was preceded in death by her parent Jesus and Sofia Aguilar, brothers Ellias John Villarreal, Richard "Dickie" Villarreal, and sister Evangeline Villareal.

Isabel is survived by her husband, Odell M. Garcia; children, Eric Jay Garcia, and Andrea Nicole Garcia Bautista; granddaughter Abigail Marie Bautista; brother Leeroy Villareal; nieces Lori Villarreal and Sophie Elaine Villareal; nephews Ellis John Villarreal and Michael Roy Villareal; and numerous other family members and friends. Isabel was loved by many and will be deeply missed.

“ Life is a symphony and death is simply the silence begging for an encore....

*You don't always meet people who make you feel special,
You don't always meet people who make you feel like you belong,
But every once in a while, someone comes along and makes you feel like you do.
They make you feel like part of the family,
They don't question your strange quirks.
They simply let you be and welcome you with open arms wherever and whenever they find you.
You feel warmth every time you see them,
and you're never quite sure what to say.
But most times you don't need to say anything,
You can simply sit in their silent company and feel at peace.
They tell you stories,
and invite you into their home.
They give you a second family and make you feel like you'll never be alone.*

*For me, Ms. Garcia was one of these people.
She is my best friend's nana,
and although I have no stories of my own,
I will never forget that every time I saw her,
I felt a little piece of my second home.*

*Her symphony may not be playing anymore, but there is an encore bursting through the hearts of everyone of us who knew her and were touched by her melody.
I hope it keeps playing forever.*

“ I remember aunt Isabel’s enormous collection of Cosmopolitan magazines that could fill up an entire room/garage. I remember her sweet laugh and the faces she would make at funny times. Love you aunt Isabel. I can’t believe your gone. But your in heaven with loving awaiting family 😊
