Julia is survived by her loving and devoted daughters, Clara Fluitt (Jeff) and Joyce Wilkinson (Keith); sister, Dorothy Fletcher; 5 grandchildren, Jeffrey Fluitt (Michelle), Michael Fluitt, Kevin Fluitt (Courtney), Brad Wilkinson (Cassidy) and Kelly Carver (Matt); 10 great-grandchildren, Taylor Fluitt, Walker Fluitt, Harrison Fluitt, Emery Fluitt, Wyndsor Wilkinson, Caroline Wilkinson, Ellory Wilkinson, Ollie Carver, Harvey Carver and Reese Carver, and numerous nieces and nephews. The family would like give a special thanks to Choice Hospice for their care and compassion they showed to Julia and her family.

Julia Whetstone was one of seven siblings and truly loved the closeness of family. She was a devoted wife and mother who loved her family dearly. Her husband, Jimmy, and two girls, Clara and Joyce, were the light of her life. That light shone a little brighter when grandchildren and great-grandchildren entered her world. She loved each of them unconditionally.

Outside of family, Julia had many passions including gardening, but one of her favorite things to do was simply take care of people. Though she was a woman of few words, her actions spoke volumes. While living in San Antonio, she and Jimmy would often bring people into their home that were walking through a difficult season of life. They didn’t want anything in return, but they understood that they were blessed to be a blessing.

On Sundays, you could find her in her two favorite places, her church and her house. After Sunday service, she would head home to prepare a large family lunch with all the fixings. She wouldn’t just prepare it for her family, but as was their custom, she would prepare extra for a large group of Bible College students that were sure to find a way to the Whetstone home.

Julia will be deeply missed by her family, friends and all who knew her.

Visitation will begin at 12:00 p.m. on Friday, March 26, 2021 with a Funeral Service to begin at 1:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Interment to follow at Mission Burial Park South.
