

Lila May Banks Cockrell

January 19, 1922 - August 29, 2019

The Family mourns the loss of its beloved matriarch, Lila May Banks Cockrell, who passed from this earthly life on August 29, 2019 to return to her Lord in Heaven. The daughter of Robert Bruce Banks and Velma Thompkins, Lila Cockrell was born in Fort Worth, Texas, on January 19, 1922. She graduated from Paschal High School in 1938 and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Methodist University (SMU) in 1942. She married her true love, Sidney Earl Cockrell, just before he was called to active duty in WWII. Lila received her commission as an Ensign in the Navy and was assigned to the Bureau of Ships in Washington, D.C. where she commanded the company of WAVES judged the "Best Commanded and Performed". In 1956, Lila and Sid moved to San Antonio, and Lila became an active community leader in civic roles. In 1963, she was elected to the City Council during the period that San Antonio was gearing up for HemisFair. In 1975, she was elected Mayor of San Antonio and served three terms until 1981. She was active in pushing for more diversity in City administrative positions. Lila was proud of having won the legal settlement that brought what would become the Valero Energy Co. to San Antonio, a major contributor to San Antonio's economic growth and a leader in corporate philanthropy. Lila participated as a delegate in her role as Mayor to visit the People's Republic of China, Munich, Berlin, Warsaw and Budapest and Japan. In 1989, she hosted Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip of the United Kingdom as well as President Carlos Salinas de Gortari of Mexico to San Antonio. She served as Ex-Officio Trustee of the City Water Board (now SAWS), San Antonio Transit (now VIA) and City Public Service Board (now CPS Energy), and as Chairman of the Fireman's and policemen's Pension Fund Board. She also served as the first President of the Alamo Bowl. After completing her public service, she accepted positions with The San Antonio Museum of Art and later as the President of the San Antonio Parks Foundation, during which time, the Japanese Tea Garden and the Jingu House were restored. She has received many honors, including the San Antonio Women's Hall of Fame, Texas Women's Hall of Fame, The Tom Bradley Award for Public Service, the Vanderlinden Award for Public Service, The Woman Who Made a Difference, and most recently The Liz Carpenter book award. A scholarship in her name has been established at SMU by Bruce Bugg. In 2015, the San Antonio Express-News, as part of the celebration of its 150th anniversary, named Cockrell as one of fifty persons considered to be the most influential to San Antonio's growth and development of that era.

By a resolution approved by the City Council, Lila was officially designated "Mayor Emeritus", and the Theatre for the Performing Arts built for HemisFair was renamed The Lila Cockrell Theatre by City Council Action.

Before her death, Lila was able to complete her autobiography, Love Deeper Than a River, expressing her embracing love for the family, respect for the radiant people of San Antonio and zest for the joy of a principled life.

Lila Cockrell is the widow of Sidney Earl Cockrell, Jr. and has two daughters: Carol (Mrs. Robert L. Gulley) of San Antonio, Texas, and Cathy (Mrs. John Newton) of Boerne, Texas. She has two grandchildren: Dodge Garman of San Antonio and Annalee Gulley of Houston, Texas.

“ A joyful life of example and of inspiring progress. A saddening farewell for San Antonio and true leadership. Love, Maria Guido and family.

“ Dear Family of Lila May Banks Cockrell, my name is Maria Guido, I am a singer-songwriter and visual artist from San Antonio who has always been inspired by the contributions of Lila as a pioneer of Woman Leadership in our city. Although a life of exemplary social contributions leaving behind a legacy of progress and success for San Antonio her physical loss was very saddening. One of my ambitions in life while a teenager was to someday take a picture at her side. Please accept my condolences and Love from my 6 year old precious daughter Fiorina Guido, my love Brazos Guido and myself. Merry Christmas 2019! Laliguido@gmail.com 210-992-3449

“ I was only 13 when Hemisfair started and I can still remember well how exciting it was for me that we had a woman for mayor! When I compiled the first history of the Girl Scouts of San Antonio, I made sure that Madam Mayor was included in our published edition. I found a photo of her with Girl Scouts to celebrate the Bicentennial of our great nation.

Thank you Mayor for all that you have gifted San Antonio with your grace, your love and your legacy of service. Prayers for all who loved this exemplary woman.

“ Beautiful woman inside and out. Very positive and influential. Glad I had the pleasure of meeting her when I worked at a school where her grandson attended. Always cheerful and witty when picking him up. Will be greatly missed. RIP Mayor Lila Cockrell

“ To honor a great Lady who broke barriers for other ladies of Texas to achieve and accomplish other goals. Her voice opened the way for other women’s voices to be heard. San Antonio and TEXAS women do truly honor her legacy.

“ I knew Lila as Carol's Mom. She treated all Carol's friends as her extended family. As we grew up she was a wonderful role model and example of what women could achieve for the betterment of our world. We send our love to all of her family. Peggy Nipper “ Mayor Lila truly set the tone, and we will miss her. My first close observation of Mayor Lila's remarkable leadership style was in 1976, when she made a presentation to an all-male board my law firm represented. Of course she succeeded in getting what the city needed--no flash, just polite, intelligent firmness.. She was both an outstanding "first woman" and a friend. My sincere condolences to Cathy and Carol, their families, and to all who loved, admired, and respected the incredible Mayor Lila.

“ My most sincere condolences to the Cockrell family at your Great Lady's passing. I was acquainted with your family back in the early 1960's when we were members of Grace Presbyterian Church; Mrs. C. was Sunday School superintendent for a time and I taught a class of sixth-graders - until she relieved me of my duties for failing to closely follow the lesson plan. She was a remarkable lady and a member of the "Greatest Generation" that has had such a profound impact on this wonderful country.

RIP Mrs. C.
