Comments

“ Nellie was new to the U.S. when she came to The Church of God of Prophecy in Detroit, Mi. with her 2 younger children, Ruthy & Joby in the 80's. My husband, Brother Ray Norris was the Pastor. Nellie loved the Lord & would sing specials for us & she sang with all her heart & soul. She made beautiful cakes & cooked delicious meals. Nellie was so much fun to be around & was a bubble of joy & pleasure to be around. She was honest hearted. Whenever I would call her, she would start laughing! The last time I called she said how wonderful it was that whenever we talked, it was like we were always together & would just naturally talk about everything. She loved the Lord with all her heart & loved her current Pastor & his lovely wife who we were blessed to meet when we went to church with her & Efrain a couple of years ago. She raised beautiful children who we loved & enjoyed being around. She was a giver. She was loving & kind. She was my Sister, & I loved her with all of my heart. I will always treasure our memories of her. Heaven has gained a precious soul. Our love to Efrain, Adolfo, Ruthy, & Joby as well as to their spouses & children & everyone who loved her.

“ Thank- you Ruthy, we love you too. I have never continued to cry so much as I have over your mother who I loved with all my heart. I just wish we could have been together more. You also hold a special place in my heart Ruthy. Your brothers coming to visit with us meant so much too. Our home is always open to you & hope we can be together again. Our prayers are with you for the memorial service & funeral. Our love to Efrain also.
