“ Too many fond memories to list here:
But being a younger sister and coming from a family of nine children she was definitely a second mother to me.
I was blessed with the privilege of being able to stay with her and help when her two oldest children were born.
Thanks, Doodle for the leather case you brought me from Mexico.

“ I remember her soft smile and chocolate gravy.
When she visited her mom and dad once in OKC my child was 6 mo old and strictly breastfed and had NEVER had solid food. His pediatrician was a firm believer in absolutely no solids until one year of age.
I left the baby with the adult women while me and my cousins went to get sodas at the nearby store. When I got back low and behold Aunt Doodle had fed him gravy and mashed potatoes. I cried all the way home, I was 26 yrs old. Looking back on it, it seems comical.
My fondest memories are of my grandmother and mother telling how their daughter and older sister, Doodle, would lay her little brother Curtis at her side from an infant and that's where he slept until she married and went to Texas. Curtis would keep her side of the bed warm until she got home from work.

I'm so thankful to our Lord that He lead us to come and bring the salvation message and she prayed with us just recently. Now it is so comforting to know she is with God and her family!!! There will never be another like her. We love you Aunt Doodle.
