

Richard L. Rocha Jr.

November 23, 1950 - August 23, 2020

Richard Lopez Rocha, Jr. passed away at the age of 69. He is survived by his daughter Elizabeth (Roberta), his son Richard, and his granddaughter Juliet. He is also survived by his wife Mary and her daughter Pamela who spent the last eight years with Richard creating memories in their loving home. Richard is also survived by his brothers Armando Lopez and Allen Albiar and his sister Angelica Albiar. He is preceded in death by his mother, Juanita Albiar, his father Richard Rocha, Sr., and his grandparents who played a prominent role in his childhood.

Richard loved to help others and enjoyed watching his family have a good time while celebrating holidays and other important life events. He worked in printing and print distribution for the greater part of his work life prior to expanding his skills and opening a mail service and printing business. Richard's friends affectionately called him "Rocky" and often described him as charming and charismatic. He always greeted customers with a smile; and no matter how small the job, gave every customer his full attention. He was a loving father and grandfather who always made it known how proud he was of his family. He also never failed to mention how lucky he was to find Mary in his later years who showered him with love.

“ To the whole family my condolences to the passing of Richard. Had the opportunity to work with Richard at a very young age. He taught me quite a bit about the printing industry. He worked with my father at his printing business and was very loyal to him. It was a pleasure working with him during those years and he was a great mentor for me. May he rest in peace.
