“ For my grandpa (papa),

All my life, I will keep the memories we shared close to my heart.

Thank you for being there for me and for showing me the true definition of independence.

I just want to let you know, you mean the world to me.

We knew too little that you were going home, it broke our hearts to see you go.

However, you did not go alone as pieces of us walk the road with you.

You are still with us wherever we may go along side all of the peaceful memories.

There will never be another grandpa to fill in the military shoes you left behind...

You always made time to listen. You always had the best advice.

Thank you for your service. Your wisdom always put everyone's mind at ease.

A golden heart that will always be remembered and never forgotten.

As we look above into the sky, as the flag flies high against the strong wind, we will think of you, honor you, and remember you.

A grandfather whom had a heart big enough to take on a huge family.

I am forever grateful that you were able to leave an impression on the life of my little girl. I am proud she got to meet you and look up to you.

The laugh she had when spending time with you. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I remember the days we begged to go to "papa's" house, we wanted to jump into the big blue pool. Those were the days. When I was a youngin. You always had the best ice cream and popsicles in the fridge..(I always fought for the banana ones by the way)..

Now, as I am older, I get to enjoy the pictures/memories of Lily jumping and playing in the bright blue waters of the pool, splashing around as I once did when I was just her age.

The stories from your past that you shared with stars in your eyes will stay in my memories forever. You saw what most didn't, you accomplished what most can't, and you made history for those whom only dreamt' of.

We will forever hold you and the memories close to our hearts.

When I look above, the clouds flying by, the slow wind, and the bright sun, I will think of you. I only wish that you can continue blessing us with your strength as you peacefully fly by.

Thank you for everything, thank you for being our papa and most of all, thank you for being you.

As you rest with silver in your hair and gold in your heart, we love and miss you most of all.

Love,

Roxanne and Lilyanna.
