“ To all those who loved A.L.-I knew him when we were both children living on Culebra Rd. His family was very special to mine. I have fond memories of his parents and the time I spent in their home with Joy Dean and Authurine. His parents had a great influe

“ Dear Billicarole,

David and I found out about A.L. Friday afternoon and needless to say were very sorry.

I am so glad we did get to visit with him at the Reunion. He was a very special person to both David and me. I always felt he was the glue tha

“ Billicarole and Family, I was a classmate of A.L. at Poe Jr High and Brackenridge. I played football with him. It seemed he was all bone back then. I last saw him at the 40th reunion and missed him at the 50th. He was all heart and a great man

“ *Looking at a picture of A.L. and the Poe Jr High School basketball team 1950, we were friends since elementary school.
My deepest sympathy to Billicarole and the family. Surely he will be missed but he now walks with the Lord. He was a wonderful friend*
