

Aaron J. McDonald

November 4, 1989 - March 22, 2025

Born November 4, 1989, to William David McDonald and Sandra Lee McDonald, Aaron John McDonald

Lived a life of loyalty and unyielding love.

He is preceded in death by his sweet Grams Anna Bell Dudley. He is survived by his parents David and Sandy McDonald, his loving sisters Stephanie Moncada and sister-in-law Monica Ramirez, sister Melanie Mabrito, brother and best friend Brandon McDonald and sister-in-law Kathryn Mabrito, nieces Hannah Uriegas (husband Marcos Uriegas), and Madison Mabrito, nephews Julian Moncada, Lleyton Mabrito, Orion Mabrito, Kaden, Palmisano and Westen Palmisano, and great nephew Mariano Uriegas.

Aaron loved nothing more than joking with his nephews and sharing his love of video games, Anime, and was always down for a game of Pokeman Go. He was a protector of his nieces, fiercely loyal and the one to call on in their moment of need. Aaron was always proud to celebrate the many accomplishments of his nieces and nephews.

Aaron loved the meaning of a sweet song, being with his family, late nights surrounded by the people he loved, and his dogs. His friends describe him as a free spirit with the ability to turn any event into a forever memory. His sweet sensitive nature made him easy to love and quick to befriend.

Aarons love and loyalty for family was second to none. He and Brandon were more than brothers, they were best friends, these guys were inseperable, one soul in two bodies. They had a myriad of inside jokes, endless one liners from movies, infectious laughter, and the keen ability to just know what the other was thinking. Together there was nothing the McDonald boys couldn't do. The love for his sisters, Melanie and Stephanie ran so deep. He was always there for a hug or just to make them laugh and feel better about life. Baby brother taken from us too soon. The world will surely miss that smile. We love you, baby.

Please join us in celebrating Aaron's life at a memorial service on Thursday April 3, 2025 Mission Funeral Home Cherry Ridge from 5pm to 8pm, San Antonio, Texas. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the San Antonio Humane Society in Aaron's honor.

“ I never met Aaron face to face, but knew him through gaming for over a decade. He was a great guy, great gamer always up for an adventure or just goofing off, a peacemaker in groups and very loyal. Amidst games I got to know a bit of his real life as well, and I regret that we never got the chance to do the real life meet we sometimes talked about. You're sorely missed in Finland as well.

“ Aaron was the most incredible person. Every day, I eagerly awaited his arrival for my shift on the day shift. He brought laughter, jokes, and a unique teaching style to the workplace. Those memories will forever be etched in my mind. So glad I've gotten to hang out outside of work. Let us never forget the sweetest, kindest, hardworking, and most extraordinary human being we had the privilege of knowing.

“ Aaron was an incredible person with a vibrant spirit. When I first met him, I felt an instant connection. We shared a great sense of humor, and he was always so funny. I'll cherish the memories of our inside jokes. He was someone I could always count on. He was a hard worker, despite repeatedly telling me he was only there temporarily. However, he often shared how difficult it was to leave because he genuinely enjoyed and liked everyone there. He had a great relationship with everyone, always cracking jokes and making his coworkers laugh. Aaron will always be a part of our Pizza Italia family. Even though he's not physically present with us, we will always remember him fondly. Rest in peace, my dear friend

“ I have so many special and fond memories of all of you from my time in Texas. You all accepted me as one of you and I cherish those memories. My favorite memory of Aaron (Sandy will know this!) is when he was a little guy and we watched The Lion King, which brought a tear to fall out of his left eye 😭 He was so full of laughter and joy. Sending hugs from afar.

“ I met AARon at my job Pizza Italia. He was quiet at first, then we started to talk and he started to open up and I loved that he was being himself. He would always make the whole staff laugh with his funny jokes. He was the best driver that we had and he was such a hard worker. He will be missed dearly. My condolences to his family/friends. He was a wonderful man.

“ My deepest condolences to his family and friends.although I didn't know him well,I could feel the love for him through Stephanie and Monica when they would share stories about her siblings. Nothing but smiles and laughter when she would speak of the times they got together. May he rest in peace and may God help this family through this difficult time.love Dolores Rios

“ My husband and I met Aaron at a bar where we played pool against his brother. He spoke highly of his siblings we cherish family and I could see he did as well. I know we met Aaron once. Stephanie would tell us how Aaron and her siblings are doing and spoke highly of each of them. I love their siblings relationship. Reminds me of my siblings. You will be missed dearly by everyone who got to know you Aaron!
