“ I just looked up Tsgt. Zooks name today and saw notice of his passing. He was my Team Chief BMTI for Basic Training. He was truly a great man. He gave me the confidence in myself when I had little and showed me that I could in fact succeed. He was patient, kind fair but firm. All new recruits that were lucky enough to get him as their BMTI began adulthood with a very firm foundation. Sir, you will be missed by all that crossed your path. God Bless and Rest in Peace. “ I would like to extend my sympathy to the family. I don't know that I ever met Aaron but I know he had roots to the Big Valley area, namely Belleville, Pennsylvania. His obit was in our local newspaper and I recognized the name. And what struck me as I read it was the fact that earlier in the year I remembered an Aaron Zook writing an article for the Upper Room magazine. I contacted the editorial staff of the Upper Room and discovered it was Aaron Jr. I was very impressed with the life of Aaron Sr. and I know he will be missed. I noticed the funeral service was in San Antonio. What a beautiful city. I have been there twice and I loved it. Blessings to all the family.

Sincerely,
