Abelardo Alonzo

May 4, 1941 – August 15, 2019

Abelardo Alonzo went to be with our Heavenly Father on August 15, 2019 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 78. Abelardo was born on May 4, 1941 in Sabinas, Coahuila, Mexico to Nieves Alonzo Castillo and Maria del Refugio Valadez. He is preceded in death by his parents. Abelardo is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Aurora Alonzo; daughters, Rosa Maria Padilla (Eliseo), Yolanda Marfil (Jesus); sons, Abelardo Alonzo, Jr.(Lana), Juan Jose Alonzo (Sinead), Roberto Carlos Alonzo (Norma), Jesus Alberto Alonzo; and 10 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Abelardo first came to the United States at the age of fourteen, looking for work. He traveled between Mexico and the U.S. many times, eventually settling in San Antonio with his family in 1973. He worked in the produce industry, and became a foreman for the C.L. Patillo Produce Co., where he worked for 29 years. He was responsible for several facets of the operation, including hiring workers, shipping produce, and maintaining inventory.

Abelardo loved working because it gave his life as a father of six children a purpose. He also enjoyed working and building relationships with people, and after he retired from produce he started a small business cutting and selling firewood to local meat markets.

Abelardo is remembered for his tireless work ethic, his tremendous sacrifices for the sake of his children and their success, and for the joy of life he felt alongside his family. He adored his wife Aurora, who he came to see as his guiding light, and together, they cared intensely for their six children, whom they loved without reservations. Abelardo is loved and missed by all who knew him.

“ I didn't know Mr Alonzo personally and I have known his son Roberto Alonzo only for a short time. But Rob has shared with me memories over the years with his father. He talks about him all the time about what a great man he was and how he raised him and his siblings. Although I didn't know him, I feel I did. RIP Mr. Abelardo Alonzo. May Heaven smile upon this great man!
