

Adela Gracia Medina

October 3, 1927 - November 4, 2011

Medina

Adela Gracia Medina was born October 3, 1927 in San Antonio Texas. She was the youngest of three to Jose and Sarah Gracia. As the youngest of three children, Adela had a very loving and protected upbringing. She traveled with her family to the Northern States during harvesting season to work with them in bringing in the harvest.

Adela was nineteen when she met an army soldier, Juan Medina. She was charmed by him and married on April 13, 1947. Her dream was to be a mother, and so she was. She was a loving mother of nine children and took pride in raising them to be good, honest, compassionate, God loving people. She taught her family with word and deed what it meant to have hope, love unconditionally, serve faithfully, endure to the end and ultimately die graciously into the arms of her Heavenly Father, where she will continue to love and serve. Truly the most important job on earth, Adela spent her life being a wonderful example of what a mother should be. She spent her life always thinking of others needs before her own and showing unconditional love to her family and friends. Adela was a devout member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and had a love of the scriptures. We are very humbled to have her as our Angel now. Her family will always remember her countless hours of selfless love and will try to live up to that example. She is and will always be the cornerstone of our family.

She is survived by her husband, Juan Medina, after 64 years of marriage. Along with their nine children, Juan, Rosaura, Maria Elena, Sarita, Gloria, Diana, Daniel, Andrew, and Patricia. With 35 grand children and 50 great grand children. The family would like to thank the many relatives and friends for their prayers, and support and we are so very grateful for the knowledge that families can be together forever.

Funeral services will be held Thursday November 10, at 11:00 am at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints at 311 Galway, First Ward Building in San Antonio, Texas.
