

Adelina Tovarez Alfaro

November 12, 1941 - September 26, 2009

Mrs. Adelina Tovarez Alfaro, widow, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, passed into our loving Lord's arms on Saturday, September 26, 2009. Adelina was born to Manuel and Angelina Tovarez on November 12, 1941, in San Antonio, TX. She is preceded in death by her parents; and 1 sister, Mary Louise. Survivors include: her loving children, Manuel Tovarez Belinda, Mary Helen Villarreal Jesse Sr., Mary Alice Sanchez Robert Suarez, Eva A. Hanson Alexander, and Jimmy Alfaro Connie; 1 brother; 5 sisters; 15 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren. We will miss her cooking: enchiladas, carne guisada, homemade tortillas, and holiday tamales. Adelina worked hard in preparing her home for hugs, kisses, and tear jerking laughs. We will cherish her memories of everyday phone calls, her green thumb, and Christmas goodies. Adelina loved life, her Lord Jesus Christ, and us. We are proud of her strength and determination. We would like to thank the staff at S.E. Baptist Hospital, for going out of their way during her final days, family, and friends, for their support, comfort, and food.

“ *A few words shared after the Rosary from Jesse Jr...
To her, we were the ones who brought in the laughs, cheers, and love of little hands, and warm hugs. To us, she's was young at heart. We could joke with her like we were in school.*
