

Adeline Evelyn Zinnecker

January 25, 1931 - December 8, 2020

Our dear mom, Adeline Evelyn Zinnecker, was called home to be with the Lord on December 8, 2020 at age 89. Born in San Antonio, Texas on January 25, 1931, her parents were Frank R. and Edna J. (Gembler) Trevino. Preceding her in death was a devoted husband, William (Leeman) Zinnecker, two beloved grandsons, Randy Cryer, Jr. and Brandon Balli, and an infant great-granddaughter, Tabitha. She is survived by her son, William "Bill" Zinnecker (Cyndi); daughters, Deborah Needham [Robert (deceased)], Brenda Honeyager (Kevin), and Diana Bielecki (Ralph); sister, Irene Cantu (Frank) and brother, Franklin (Sonny) Trevino; grandchildren, Tiffany Zinnecker and Amanda Bradley (Brandon), Aimee Rector and Brandee Needham, and Aaron Honeyager. Also surviving her are five great grandchildren; Kirstin, Katie, Audree, Emma and Hunter, along with numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. A devoted homemaker who worked tirelessly, Mom always made our home a happy place as we shared family milestones and wonderful holidays. She will be remembered for her passion and gift of gardening, plus a tremendous soft spot for animals of all kinds, a trait handed down to each of her children. Mom had a sweet, special way to smile and giggle that we shall always cherish. She will be dearly missed and our memories of her live on in each of our hearts.

“ I always think of her this time of year not only because of her kindness but also because of her anise cookies. She always made some with no icing for me. I always loved to go into the bird cages with her to see the pairs and babies Marie
