“ This is but one of the lessons families must endure. It brings to light the many wonderful things our loved one has left us. It emboldens us to move on, take charge, and lead our families to endure and prosper. You can be prideful, humbled, and comforted

“ God's grace made us his children, his mercy gave us parents for this world. What a priviledge to go home to be with the Father and the ones who have gone on before us. God is Love. I will know you love me if you love one another.
