Adolfo Magallanes Jr., 74 years of age, born 11/19/1942, died Wednesday, May 3, 2017 at Saint Luke's Baptist Hospital following a brief illness. He leaves his wife of 48 years, Frances Herrera Magallanes; his three sons Mario Herrera Magallanes, Xavier Rene Magallanes, and Adolfo Magallanes III, and his three grandchildren Victoria Nicole Magallanes, Xavier Christopher Magallanes, and Madelline Rose Magallanes, and two daughter-in laws Veronica Guzman Magallanes, and Armandina Segovia Tamez Magallanes. He is survived by his sister Evangelina M. Ruiz, and preceded in death by Alfredo Magallanes

Born in San Antonio and raised in Losoya, Texas, the son of Adolfo R. Magallanes Sr., and Amelia Machado Magallanes.

In his early years

Adolfo Magallanes Jr. attended Southside High School and graduated in 1961, and then, soon began employment at the Universal Book Bindery. Since then he has worked for Mrs. Bairds Bakery as a driver, and later employment consisted of Chrome Plate, Coors, Budweiser, Lone Star Brewery which culminated with his retirement at Home Depot.

Love of Family

Love can be felt in the room when his youngest son Adolph Magallanes III would come from his room to express his love for his dad, and without a slight movement one could feel the love that exuded from with-in him for his son. Adolfo Magallanes Jr's. eyes would light at the sight of his granddaughter

Victoria. He also relished the time that he spent with his eldest son Mario Magallanes, and the conversations that they held together.

Adolfo Magallanes III also had a great admiration for his daughter in-law Veronica Magallanes. I remember him saying that if anyone had anything bad to say about her, they would have to deal with him.

These are priceless memories that will be relished for all eternity.

The Eye of the Storm

Life is a storm, my young friend. You will bask in the sunlight one moment, be shattered on the rocks the next. What makes you a man is what you do when that storm comes. You must look into that storm and shout out as you did in Rome. Do your worst, for I will do mine! Then the fates will know you as we know you: As Adolfo Magallanes Jr., the man!
