“ My heartfelt condolences to the family & friends. I have known Adrain since he was a child and always had wonderful stories to tell about any subject which would come up during our conversations. He loved hard & enjoyed life. His family& girl friend were the closest to his heart. He will be missed by many. I have been told, when God needs a new flower in his garden, he picks the most unique & beautiful, he chose well with Adrian. I love you pop! May the perpetual light shine upon you, rest in peace.

With love, George G. Esquivel

“ Less than a week before he was readmitted into the hospital, which was not long ago, Adrian was sitting in my office here at the Credit Union and it was as if he was his old self again. We were concluding business but also took the time to joke a bit as usual and just talk about the kids, how much support his beautiful girlfriend has shown and just how much he loved his family. He never lost that spark of life. I will always remember him that way. My condolences go out to all who has been affected by his passing. To his girlfriend, I never had the pleasure of meeting you but heard so much about you. Thank you for giving Adrian what he needed. All my respect to you, Jeannie, Bailey, Derek, his aunts, uncles, nieces and everyone else who has stuck with him through out his journey. It wasn't easy but you definitely made it that much easier for him. He will be missed immensely. We love you Adrian.
