“ We met Adrian and Maria 4 years ago. My wife Linda and I were standing at the bar at a Cowboys watch party at a small club. Out of many, many hundreds of people in this small club, Adrian taped me on the shoulder to ask if he could order drinks for him and Maria . We started talking. Adrian asked if I minded if they hung out with us, since you could hardly walk in the place from being so crowded. From that moment all by chance Adrian, Maria, Linda and myself became best of friends, just by a tap on the shoulder that day. As the saying goes,
I have family that ain't blood and have blood that ain't family.
RIP ADRIAN.

“ The most memorial days of our life together was on our wedding day, I met his family for the first time and it was raining when We went in the service and came out to a snow storm. It hadn't snowed for years before that day, it made for some gorgeous wedding pictures. Adrian thanks for all the good times and taking care of me when I was only 16 , the song he always played was "16 candles" Love you man.

I want to speak from my heart , but it feels broken , my whole person is broken , I knew it would hurt , but why so hard an so long I knew him since he was born and now he is gone, he was my little brother , more pain , Mom would make us chase him and catch him ? , but we would get it too With the chancla, more pain , I could wrestle with , til he got bigger than me , more pain , I have a broken fist from trying to box with him , more pain , after mom died he would call me late at night , to talk about mom and dad , more pain , and now I can't call him ,he can not call me so much pain, he touch so many people , I pray the lord our god , takes my brother in his arms No more pain

“ My name is Stacey. Adrian was married to my sister Lisa. They have 3 beautiful children together. Adrian was always picking at the kids trying to get us in trouble! (Not really but jokingly) He had a kind heart and was loving. My most memorable moment regarding Adrian is when I was just 17 and pregnant Adrian bought me maternity clothes because I couldn't afford them. He will be missed! RIP Adrian! "Ain't nothing gonna break my stride" (one of his favorite songs) along side "the ghetto" sung by Elvis! My prayers are with his family!

Adrian it's too hard to believe that God has called you home. You have always been so full of life and always loved a good time. Thank you for being a big brother to my Sister and more importantly thank you for loving her. The party must go on up in heaven, we will do our best to keep it going here for you. Rest In Peace and enjoy your after life. GO COWBOYS!
