

Agapito Lerma Galvan

October 19, 1948 - May 28, 2021

It is with great sadness and a heavy heart that our beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend Agapito Lerma Galvan entered eternal rest on May 28, 2021 at the age of 72. Agapito was born on October 19, 1948 in Karnes City, Texas to Agapito and Juanita (Lerma) Galvan.

He was met at the pearly gates by his wife, Amelia who preceded in death three days prior. He is also preceded in death by his parents and brothers, Eloy Lerma Galvan and Richard Lerma Galvan. He is survived by his children, Bianca Alvarado (Danny), Ursula Flores (Tony) and Jason; grandchildren, Daniel Alvarado, Ryan Alvarado, Joshua Alvarado, Alexandra Flores, Gabriela Flores, Katarina Flores and Calvin; sisters, Annie DeLeon, Clara Lopez, Betty Galvan, and Nora Herrera; other loving family members and friends.

Agapito was a Sergeant in the US Army 4th Infantry Combat Division and is a decorated Vietnam Veteran. He was a Christian and follower in Christ and later studied the bible and attended church services with his beloved wife Amelia. Dad was a family man – he loved to spend time with his children and grandchildren. He found peace working on the yard, studying golf and reading up on national and local politics.
