

Agatha L. Wash

April 24, 1916 - January 10, 2015

Agatha Lynn Watts Wash born on April 24, 1916 in McMahan, Texas passed away on January 10, 2015 at the age of 98. Agatha grew up on a farm and talked vividly about riding horses to school and working in the cotton fields. She had many stories to tell her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She moved to San Antonio after marrying Conroe and giving birth to Loreese. Agatha was known by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren as "Nana" and was very active in their lives. She went on ski trips with the family and was driving and mowing her own lawn in her 90s. She chauffeured her grandkids and great-granddaughter to dance lessons, soccer practice, band practice, baseball practice, doctor appointments...she was always there for her family. Later in life, she became a fixture at a local coffee shop Perks owned by her grandson Brian while he was caring for her. She thought she worked there and enjoyed visiting with the regulars. Nana was a "fixture" in all of our lives and she will be missed dearly. She was a role model and a very independent woman and many generations adored her. Agatha Nana is preceded in death by her beloved husband Conroe, parents Janie and Jim Watts, brother Lutrell Watts, and granddaughter Connie Lynn Wohlfarth. Survivors include her daughter Connie Loreese Wohlfarth of San Antonio; granddaughter Kelly Quinn Baker and husband Stephen of San Antonio; grandsons Brian Kent Wohlfarth and wife Stacey of San Antonio and Gary Wayne Wohlfarth and wife Jessica of Park City, Utah. Five great-granddaughters: Krystal Quinn of San Antonio, Julia Wohlfarth of Austin, Connie Wohlfarth, TJ Wohlfarth, and Kelli Wohlfarth of Park City, Utah. The family would like to thank the staff at Franklin Park Memory Care who cared for our beloved Nana.
