

Agnes Magdalene O'Neill

October 25, 1907 - June 23, 2004

O'NEILL

Agnes Magdalene O'Neill born October 25, 1907 passed away on June 23, 2004 in San Antonio, Texas. She had been a resident of St. Francis Nursing Home since 1993. Born in Lucinda, Pennsylvania, she served her country in military service as a World War II Army Nurse at the Battle of the Bulge. She was Chief of Nurses both at Santa Rosa Hospital in San Antonio, and at the VA Hospital in Kerrville, Texas. She took great pride in, and had limitless love for, her family. She was a superb role model. Her life is chronicled with the extraordinary way in which she accomplished ordinary deeds. Agnes was preceded in death by nine siblings. Now, she joins her siblings in the glory of God. She is survived by one brother, John O'Neill and wife Florence of Oil City, Pennsylvania; numerous nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.
