“ I have frequently thought of Linda and wished I could locate her. Yesterday I found the clipping I had of her wedding announcement. This morning as I was waking up, she again came to my mind and it dawned on me that I should google her name. You can imagine how tears flowed. The reason I wanted to find her is that I always think of her as one of the sweetest people I've known. We spent our three high school years in classes and on the newspaper staff together. We were co-editors of the newspaper in our senior year and had a bundle of fun together. We also would work on decorating the gym for activities. I just loved being around Linda as we were such opposites. She was soft spoken, I was loud, and she was amiable while I was expressive. What a precious person and a great loss. My deepest regrets to you, her loved ones. God has a sweet one with him.

“ Oh I'm so sorry to see this obituary. I was at Tech with Linda. We were co-editors of the school newspaper. Over the years I have asked everybody I meet that was from Tech, if they had seen her. Today I was looking at some things I had saved and found her and Gilbert's wedding announcement from the newspaper. I quickly looked her up online. She was one of the sweetest people I have known. Her kindness was her leading feature. Spending three years with her during our many classes and after school work, left me with a fondness for Linda that has lasted through the years. God bless you, her family. Della Plata Andretti, picgal@me.com.
