On his final minutes I was told by my aunt his sister even on his final breath he remain a fighter. And not once through all the complications he suffered did he complain. Even his final minutes were quiet and drama free, just like the man he was and I've known him to be. He was a man who worked hard, never regretted life, always accepting how things were even when they were up and down and enjoyed the moments still. He taught me a lot about what matters and how to just be happy. Never to be anything else but myself like he was about himself. To continue to be me, because like he told me, I can't go wrong being like him personality wise. Lol, he loved to crack jokes, it was also his way of apologies sometimes too. Dad you know my heart and all the a million and 1 words of love I have for you. I can't and I won't say goodbye because I know you're only a prayer away, a conversation away, a tear away. I love you dad ❤️

“ My heart goes out to all of Albert's family and love ones. My your hearts be filled with peace knowing that Albert is with his Father in Heaven. Albert to me is my Tio, whom I have adored and loved since a little girl. I remember as a little girl getting in trouble by my Mom for repeating things I would hear Tio say. He was funny always making light of things. I will miss him dearly, but I know he is at peace in Heaven. And I can't leave without Thanking his Wife Rosemary for loving him unconditionally and taking the Best care for him! ”

“ To my dearly beloved brother, I always enjoyed being in your presence & I looked forward to seeing you walk through the church doors with that big contagious smile on your face. You had such a great sense of humor & you loved making people laugh. It touched my heart deeply when you said you were ready to go be with Jesus, your Savior, and you had this amazing peace and confidence in your relationship with Him. The times I'd go visit you & bring food you were the first one at the table. I was able to capture the moment when pastor took you a cake so we could sing Happy Birthday & the same reaction, you kicked the covers and sat down eagerly. I will always treasure those moments and I lost my baby brother, Albert, and God sent me you. I love and thank you for being a part of my life. I know you already met the brother I never had a chance to see. Knowing you, your probably best friends already. Well, my dear brother and friend, looking forward to our soon homecoming. With all my love, your big sister... irene biache
