At the age of 17 he started in the family business, Garcia's Barber Shop and worked for years as a Barber. He also worked the family business, Las Haceindas Mexican Restaurant for many years. His passion in life was his family, being a Barber and singing karaoke. When you met him you loved him. His heart was made of gold, one of a kind. His singing, laughter and sense of humor will live in our hearts forever. Thank you for showing us how to life should be lived. We could not have asked for a more perfect man to lead our family. It's not goodbye, we'll see you when it's time. We Love You!
