“ Great man and great police officer. I'm sure there were times that you were angry or sad, but I never saw that in you. You always had a smile and a kind word each time I saw you. I missed you when you stopped playing golf with our retiree group and I will miss you now. May you rest in peace and may God bless your family. Gilbert Sandoval.

“ Our Compadre was an honest and hardworking man devoted to his family first and dedicated to his job as an SAPD officer. He was god-father to our daughter Cassandra whom he loved dearly. Albert was an avid golfer and kept us on the "straight and narrow" (pun intended), but with a sense of humor. That's the way he was in life, a straight shooter, forthright man that you could count on. He was a man's man! We will sorely miss you Compadre.

Love,

Mike & Bonnie
