

Alberto Saucedo Balderas

December 22, 1945 - August 8, 2024

Alberto S. Balderas, December 22nd, 1945, age 78, beloved husband, father, grandfather & great grandfather went to be with the Lord on August 8th, 2024. Born in Cloete, Coahuila & proceeded in death by his parents, Anacleto & Eulalia Balderas, four brothers & one sisters.

Alberto was a selfless, hardworking, kind man who dedicated his entire life to his loved ones and close friends. He worked over 35 years at San Antonio Water System, rain or shine, never complaining or taking a day off. For so many years, he provided a safe haven for passing relatives coming to this country for a better life, making many sacrifices along the way. He loved music, he played guitar and sang with his wife many nights. He was known to enjoy a Bud Light, a cigarette and his scratch off tickets, all while spending time either grilling BBQ, or watching a football game. He loved traveling and enjoying new experiences, his favorite was taking his sweet time at the penny machine at any casino he could get too. He was the resident salsa maker in the house, making the best papas con chile in town. Alberto was a quiet man who only spoke with intention. He was so loved that many revered him as an honorary father figure. To know him, was to love him; he was a lifelong kind of friend.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 50 years, Enriqueta Gomez Balderas, their daughters Maria Montoya (Rene), Maricela Trevino (Felipe), Daisy

Balderas, grandkids Jesse R. Ramirez, Javier A. Ramirez (Ellie), Isaac Trevino, Jennifer M. Ramirez, Sarah R. Trevino, Jaqueline M. Ramirez & great grandkids Jesse J. Ramirez, Jayden J. Ramirez, Julian J. Ramirez, Jaelynn M. Ramirez.
