“ Alberto was a very sweet person! I knew him for more than 50 years through marriage! He loved having fun and having his family together! He loved a good joke and oldies , and Spanish music! He was a no non-sense kinda of man! Told just how it was! He had wonderful Navy career of that he would speak of places and things he had seen. He loved Marty very much and we often had great outings all together! His grandsons were his delight and his love of baseball that they played brought him so much joy! His new pride and joy his new granddaughter and his forever little girl Neccia gave him a full family life! Rest in peace old friend and brother in law! You will be missed! God bless you ! (Tico, Jiggs, Alberto !)
