“ My deepest condolences to the Family. Dad was a proud father of his children. And “yes” he had bragging rights. Nothing mad him more proud. Family was the first important thing to him. And now I know he is at peace with his beautiful wife after promising to take care of everything here on earth. Rest in peace 🙏📄

“ Mr. Uresti always made me feel welcomed in his home and always asked me about my Mom and my children. He remembered things about each of us which made our conversations very meaningful. He was so down to earth and yet incredibly proud of his family. He will be dearly missed. May God welcome you into his loving embrace Mr. Uresti.
