

Alejandro Moreno, Sr.

March 18, 1968 - January 19, 2021

Alejandro Moreno Sr., known to friends and family as Alex, passed away on Tuesday, January 19, 2021 at the age of 52. He was born in San Antonio, TX on March 18, 1968 to Olga & Antonio Moreno. He graduated from Harlandale High School in 1986. Alex first met his future wife, Evelyn Moreno, at Collier Elementary School, where it was love at first sight; however, it took many years for them to reunite their love and were married on June 23, 2018. Alex was a loving father, son, brother, uncle, grandfather, and (Pa). He loved all his children, stepchildren, grandchild, nieces, and nephews and they were all his favorite. Alex proved blood doesn't always make a man a father, being a father is raising a child and loving and caring for them unconditionally, as Alex did for all his children. Alex was a friend to many. His warm welcoming personality allowed him to connect with so many people throughout his lifetime.

Alex was a man of GOD with strong faith. He professed his Faith at the Southeast church of Christ. He was a hardworking man who worked at UT Health San Antonio for 3 years and previously worked for several years at Universal Bookbindery Inc, and devoted his time volunteering for his community and church. Alex found beauty with the little things in life and while spending his time outdoors. He'd never pass up the opportunity to take trips with his family deep sea fishing or hiking the mountains of Colorado. It was what he loved to do. Alex loved spending his time at home watching baseball and the Spurs. Alex was a huge Star Wars Fan and a true man of the 80's.

You could name any movie or song from the 80's and he would quote every single line.

We will continue to thank GOD every day for bring this wonderful man into our lives and allowing us to spend the days we had with him. Alex will continue to watch over us and live through all of our hearts to this day.

“No one's ever really gone. “ - Luke Skywalker

“ I love my Tio, have always and will continue throughout my whole life. We never got to have that Star Wars conversation, but that’s okay I know we will see each other some day. I will miss his smile and his laugh. Even though sometimes he was laughing because he was making fun of you, it was all out of love. He loved all his grandchildren to death and would do anything for them. I will miss his looks that he would give me from his seat while I was up at the pulpit. It would always get me to smirk and would make me want to laugh so badly. I’ll miss his advice that he would give me, and the “Hey mijo how are you?” That I would get every time we would interact. The simple things. Most of all I will miss the love that he showed to his family, every single one of us, he loved unconditionally. I miss you Tio, and love you so much.
P.S. I’ll make sure to always give grandma a big hug and kiss every time I see her because she’s my mom too! Haha
Your nephew,
A.J. Moreno
