“ Max was a good man with a big heart, Max will be greatly missed by the Madrigal family, he was always there along with his cousin Patrick with our family when we had an event for our son, his friend Jacob, who passed a year ago, shedding a tear for his friend Jacob, "ONE OF A KIND" we hope we get to see his daughter again and see Max through her. Our deepest condolences to the family.

“ Best memories of max is all of them .this guy was the best to be around always laughing and making the best of every moment .especially when we were kids those were the best of times for me .he was always getting into everything and anything to make the time pass.like when grandma vela would pick us up every single day from school and we would play every board game and activity we could think of and learn it till we mastered it.our go to was the game mancala.it was a old timer game but we had so much fun he got so good at it i could never beat him anymore.there was always a new project every week from learning how to crochete with grandma to skateboard kick flips till our hands went numb.another great memory was our summer trips to the ranch with grandma when she would let us drive half way there and we would go clean up the yard and house and when we were done there we went on all kinds of adventures.getting into all the antiques filled closets and going into the old house in the back finding anything we could .shooting beebee guns around the property an
Getting chased by the cows lol .i remember one time we were out of things to do so he talked me into letting him pierce my ear .idk why i let him but i did and it got all infected lol and grandma got so mad at us .it hurt so bad but it was so fun we laughed the whole time thru it.i can go on and on with all the fun filled days with him .his laugh alone was everything .just hearing it will make u smile .i will forever miss him and his crazy fun filled personality .and cant wait till we meet again because i miss him so much already.when my time comes I kno he will be there eaiting for me standing next to my dad with that big ol smile of his .love u max aka pork chop as my grandparents would call him . see u on the other side some day cuzz love u and forever. In my heart

“ My fondest memories of my Nephew Max are of when he was a little boy. He was a curious little guy who was always looking for tools to fix or build anything and everything he could find. He was adventurous and had zero fear of trying anything. A witty little jokester , he'd always have the funniest little pranks, my favorite was when he'd offer me gum and as I'd reach in for it I'd get shocked.... I fell for it every time and he'd laugh so hard about it. He was so determined, as soon as Max set his mind to learn something, he'd learn it and push himself to be the best at it like being a master at the Rubik's cube or learning to ride a Unicycle and do skateboarding tricks. Max loved making deals and winning bets, he was good at collecting and saving money when he was little and loved “Socklate Milk” (how he pronounced chocolate milk). The last time I saw Max was at a family gathering at the lake, I hadn't seen him in so long and this time he was all grown up and had a beautiful child of his own. Same smile, same laugh, same silliness, same good guy. I'm forever grateful to have been his aunt and to have these and so many more memories of him.

My deepest condolences to the entire Vela Family, sending healing prayers to you all.

Rest in heaven “Macky” (that's what I called him), memories of you will forever live in my heart.

*Love,
Aunt Monica
Cousins, Aaron & Allison *
