“ I was asked to share a few pictures of Alex by his family. Alex is one of my first cousins and when having conversations with him he always expressed the love he has for his parents and family. He was blessed to have found his soulmate with Martha. He expressed how much he loves her and that she made him very happy. Alex was a giving person and made sure that he had gifts for his entire family for Christmas. He loved shopping. His daily lunch calls to his Dad (Pops) and Mom are going to be missed by them. Alex has a big giving heart. You will be missed by many Primo. I love you!

“ growing up i didn't have many father figures, but as soon as i met Alex he fulfilled the spot in so many ways i couldn't begin to imagine. A truly incredible, caring, and sweet loving man. He taught me what love was supposed to look like, and feel like. I am so grateful we got the years we did, as sad as i am to see you go; i know you're happy riding in heaven. I will miss you & love you forever my papa smurf.
