“ According to Susan Polis Schutz, “there are many people that we meet in our lives but only a very few will make a lasting impression on our minds and hearts”.

Alex (The Mayor) is one kindhearted, son, husband, father, brother, colleagues, and friend to all of us.

He is a humble, hardworking, caring, adventurous, and wise man. A mentor/adviser to my family, and my financial buddy.

When it's time to see you, Alex never sends notice that he's on his way to my house. I will forever cherish his impromptu visitation.

When friendship leaves us through death, we feel cheated in life because of the demise of a true friend. But a true friend is never truly gone, their spirit lives on in the memories of those who loved them.

Indeed, we belong to God, and indeed to Him we will return.

We love you, but God loves you more. Rest In Peace Alex.

Our deepest condolences to Alex Koyejo's family and many friends.

May the Good Lord Grant Him Eternal Rest.

“ Alex my dear brother-we will miss you--all the laughs all the support that we shared with each other.- The nickname that my wife Fefe gave you, after a fund night out-TONYA was the nickname and she would not allow you to forget it.

We little knew the day God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you. you did not go alone. For part of us went with you. You left all of us beautiful memories. Although we cannot see you- you are always at our side.

“ Mr. Alex Iyiola Koyejo was a brother and a good friend. He was our chaperone to Disney World in 2005, and infected me with traveling and going on adventurous vacations.

Fondly called Mayor by us, his associates having spent longer lives in Columbia Missouri before moving to San Antonio.

Kind hearted and loving fella he was.

We dearly miss you Mr Koyejo.

Uncle, you will surely be missed. You left too soon. Man of God, full of God's word. You thought me how to invest in Fulton State Hospital .Full of knowledge, always full of smiles. Uncle, you always invite me and family to ODUDUWA'S party. I will missed you.

Your death surprised me and my family.Who can question God? Nobody.

REST IN PEACE.

“ Mr. Koyejo (Mayor) left himself and family in the hearts and memories of us all. He showed up at our family times of joys. He attended my children's graduation ceremonies, my wife's birthday party, our Church events. When his Mama (Beatrice O Koyejo) was with us in the United States, Mr. Koyejo helped arrange Mama to Church on time. A humble man, a sincere man, not a hypocrite. He with his wife were so sincere and loving. May the Living God grant you eternal rest at the bosom of your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May He also comfort all of us Mr. Koyejo left behind to mourn his sudden departure. - Venerable & Mrs. Yinka and Tinuke Eniade, The New Evangelical Anglican Church, Columbia, MO
