

Alex Chue-Hin Shum

August 6, 1953 - March 28, 2015

Alex Chuen-Hin Shum of San Antonio died from complications of multiple sclerosis on March 28, 2015 at the age of 61. Born in Hong Kong on August 8, 1953, Alex attended the University of Houston, where he met his wife, Loretta, and graduated with top honors in industrial engineering. He later joined the United States Corps of Engineers where he had the opportunity to live and travel extensively throughout Europe. His home was always in San Antonio, where he pursued his love of gardening. An animal-lover of creatures great and small, Alex provided love and shelter for a host of pets. Alex Shum is survived by his wife, Loretta Shum, his daughter, Victoria Shum of San Antonio, his brother Samuel Shum of Hong Kong, his sister, Yvonne Sham of Shenzhen, China, and Howl and Button. A memorial service in celebration of Alex Shum's life will be held at noon on Wednesday, April 1, 2015 at Mission Park North on Cherry Ridge. In lieu of flowers, the family welcomes donations made in his honor to National MS Society, 9830 Colonade Blvd., Suite 130, San Antonio, Texas 78230, or the Animal Defense League, 11300 Nacogdoches Road, San Antonio, Texas 78217.
