

Alexander Angel Esqueda

March 27, 1999 - March 19, 2023

Alexander Angel Esqueda, 23, of San Antonio, Texas entered eternal rest on March 19, 2023. He was born March 27, 1999 in San Antonio, Texas.

Alexander is remembered as the loving father that always brought joy to his daughter's heart. His energetic spirit for his beloved Yankees was loved by all. The tenacity and strive he had to build his entrepreneurships are characteristics all could look up to. His power to bring a smile to your face was undeniable and adored by anyone around him. Alexander was a loving brother who would do anything for his siblings. His confidence within himself was inspiring to all that knew him. The love he cherished for his "Nan" will forever be within his heart and spirit. The memory of his love and legacy will live on through those who loved him and knew him best.

Alexander is survived by his parents Jason Richard Villaseñor, and Melissa Villaseñor, daughter Alaina Angel Esqueda, siblings Annali Villaseñor, Nathaniel Villaseñor, Sydney Blue, Alijah Amesquita, and Aven Amesquita, and Julian Esqueda.

Alexander is preceded in death by his great grandparents of the Esqueda family, and great grandparents of the Villaseñor family.
