“ Alex, my dear cousin, words cannot express what I am feeling. The last months of your life you expressed to me that you were avoiding phone calls. You didn't want to talk to anyone. You told on several occasions that you were depressed because your eyesight was completely going. You said that you were so tired of having dialysis next all I would say was hang in there, don't give up. I will always remember our talks and I will miss them. I will always remember the times I spent with you and Ernest growing up. We were laughing about the times y'all would play house with me and Vivian. How we would make mud pies and pretend we were making beans with the beans from the mesquite tree. We also talked about grandma's tortillas and all the delicious food she made for us and grandpa bringing barbecue from Do Drop In. I know that you're in better place, with no more pain. You suffered with your illnesses for so many years and last weeks of your life were the most painful. May The Perpetual Light Shine Upon you. Rest In Eternal Peace cousin. I miss you so much. You will always be in my heart, my thoughts and in my prayers. 🙏❤️🙏💕🙏🕊️😭😭😭
