“ P.S. how could I forget your Dad's cooking ,Letty ,when you would share his famous lasagna & tasty brisket that I always asked you about at work. I would ask you sometimes if your Dad was cooking it again...such fond memories. I was like wow your Dad cooked all this he is so talented. I thought what a cool Dad you have. Heaven acquired un gran Chef who will be keeping the Angels well fed at the dinner table. May your memories give you strength as his spirit lives on amongst you.

“ I extend my deepest sympathies and condolences to the Ibarra family during this very difficult time. I fondly remember meeting Mr. & Mrs. Ibarra thru my wonderful friendship with your daughter Letty (my Buddy). I always admired watching them dancing during your family celebrations and enjoyed seeing them engage with their grown children & grandkids. You all made me feel like part of your family, really felt rich in my heart and it was Priceless. I'll never forget it. Your Dad was so approachable, warm and full of life and I always thought in my mind I wished my Dad had been just like your Dad. I never got to have a relationship with my Dad but in a special way I got to experience how it felt to be around a special patriarch to connect with. When I'd approach asking how's he been doing sometimes he'd say real calmly, "Que haces Nancy". I remember telling him one time if he was the Chicano Fred Astaire after he lit up the dance floor with his wife Raquel. He just smiled shyly and shook his head. Warms my heart just remembering these incredible memories of him and his family just living life to the fullest. May He rest in peace and may God Bless you All. My thoughts and prayers are with you always.

Con todo de mi corazon,
Nancy Lee Guerra

“ I will always remember him dancing with his wife at all the family gatherings. He loved his family very much and was very proud of them all. He was a very happy man because he had the love of his life with him and all the children we're so close-knit of a family. That gave him great comfort. I live next door to Letty and Chris saw him always with a smile. It is so wonderful to see a family get along. This is a very loving family and he will always be in everyone's heart.

“ A beautiful life, made a difference in many peoples lives. My uncle and my aunt made it possible for me to get reunited with my family after two years being away from my parents, I was 11 years old. They went through many risks to make it possible. He will be greatly missed by our family. Abraham I. Ibarra
