“ Alfred was always such a great person and will be remembered for long to come. I remember Alfred as far back as him running around the street playing w Krystal as a little boy, That little boy grew up and became such a reliable, dependable friend, from helping my daughter and I in the middle of the night while stranded on the highway, to filling up our tank with gas when times were hard. Thanks for the laughs and good times Alf. My heart is with your family at this time. He loved them all so much and though we hadn't spoken in a while, when we did run in to each other at the corner store while Alf bought his rolls of lotto tickets his family was all he spoke of and was so proud of. Fly high Alf.
