“ I'd like to send my condolences to my Uncle Alfred's family. I cannot imagine your pain or what it's like to lose a parent. But I'm glad he is no longer suffering. I only have good/funny memories of Uncle Alfred. The one that comes to mind is when he was the last one to leave my high school graduation party because he was having too much fun dancing and singing. Another memory is getting together every year at The Ranch. I remember him always making jokes and making everyone around him laugh. He will forever be missed! 💕
Love Always,
Amber Alonzo

“ Oh my dear brother Alfred , you will be sorely missed. I can still hear your voice in my head, I can see your beautiful smile and that infectious laugh you had. The stories you'd share at times were so animated, I couldn't help to laugh so hard. It was an honor and privilege to walk along your side these last few years. May you rest in peace brother...you are home. I love you and save me a spot in heaven. Until I see you again, your baby sister Alicia Alonzo-Reyes.
