

Alfredo "Freddy" J. Ibarra

March 4, 1967 - November 20, 2015

Freddy Ibarra, 48, passed away November 20, 2015 surrounded by his family. He was a lifelong resident of San Antonio and fan of the Spurs. He graduated from Harlandale in 1986. He is preceded in death by his father Victor and survived by his mother Carmen, brothers VictorAnnaand JerryRuth, numerous family and friends.Freddy was an excellent salesperson. One year he sold more raffle tickets for St.Leo's Fall Festival than anyone else. He was also an entrepreneur who founded Freddy's Fanatic Shop. He is best known as an artisan of beads and volunteer for the Spurs.Lastly, he was an extremely sociable person that talked with anyone and everyone. He was never afraid to reach out to people. We honestly could say that he was never out of his comfort zone; he never had a one. Freddy will be missed by everyone especially by his family. God gave us a gift and we were extremely grateful to have received it. Now God asked him to come back so that he can enjoy him for himself.Viewing will be Tuesday, November 24, 2015 from 5:00-7:00 PM at Mission Park South followed by the Rosary. The mass will be Wednesday, November 25, 2015 at 9:00AM at St.Leo's Catholic Church.Interment Mission Burial Park South.
