“ My daddy had many beautiful memories he has given everyone in our family in his own ways. Our father is more than a great dad or friend. He is our mentor and our rock in the family, he made all of us smile in his own little ways and along with frustrating every single one of us at some point in our lives but the one thing we could all do with our dad is always depend on him to make us feel better when we were down and out he always knew how to get a laugh out of us all even though we were upset or mad.

Our father is the most amazing man that has walked this earth for creating great love and wonderful memories with our mother by giving her true unconditional love to her and his Eight children.

One of the greatest moments I had the pleasure of having with my daddy is when my brother Michael and I " Ricky Gonzalez" took our daddy to his first ever spurs game. I can honestly say and tell everyone he was smiling from ear to ear and truly enjoyed himself like he was a kid all over again. He came out telling us both that he met Tim Duncan and Kawhi Leonard and they both told him he was one of the best basket ball players they has ever seen play and he was super hyped about it. My daddy got the opportunity to go onto center court after the spurs game and was showered with gifts and plenty of attention from the SPURS organization. These moment and memories will always remain fresh in my head and deep in my heart.

Daddy I will forever keep you living in our hearts and minds till we meet again. I LOVE AND MISS YOU MY BEST FRIEND OUR DADDY, OUR HERO!!!

“ My father was a hard worker & a great family man who loved his wife dearly. They recently celebrated their 50th anniversary in March and raised 8 children; 5 boys & 3 girls. He was the coolest grandpa anyone could ask for. He was the grandpa that would watch any movie, play tea time, play video games, perform magic tricks, would allow his grandchildren to put bows on his hair and would do anything his grandchildren would ask him to do. He was a huge prankster & loved telling his corny jokes. He loved playing basketball & always had the whole block out every weekend. All the kids on the block knew him as "Grandpa". He was a huge Dallas Cowboys & Spurs fan. He was one of 18 children in which 13 still live. My father was a simple man that always made people laugh. I don't think my dad knew how to hold a grudge. He was such a loving & devoted father. He taught us all to be hard workers & showed Us the importance of having a family. He was never a materialistic individual & loved everyone. He always welcomed anyone who was in need of a place. He was that person that made everyone feel loved & welcomed. He will forever be missed!!

Rest in peace my daddy - Elizabeth Zamora
