After high school Alfredo joined the Army to serve his Country before being honorably discharged. After, Alfredo worked as a carpenter most of his adult life, before retiring and becoming a first place holder for the best Pinto Beans in the San Antonio area. He especially enjoyed making rustic furniture out of old fencing and novelty items. He was quite the jokester and was ready at a moment's notice to enjoy a great old fashion Bar-B-Que with family.

Alfredo always lent a helping hand to those in need, when he wasn't hanging out with his many buddy and friends at Joe's Ice House where you could always find him at his designated seat, better known as the "Bull Shit Corner". Alfredo was a great pool player and enjoyed watching his favorite sports team the Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs with a cold brew in hand.

Alfredo was also known to some in the area as Brown Santa, he would enjoy dressing up as Santa Clause and making the rounds to the local bars to extend a holiday cheer to everyone.

Although, Alfredo will be missed dearly, his great laughter and contagious spirit will be with everyone who he encountered.

Alfredo went to join his niece Victoria and his father Alfredo Sr. Rest assured that even Heaven has a BeerThirty, salute!

For here lies a great man who has left a wonderful legacy behind. He was larger than life and he lived it to the fullest. May there be comfort in knowing that someone so very special to us allwill never be forgotten.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire family. Alfred was a good friend of mine you was my sparring partner at Joe's Ice House. He would sit in front of 2 air conditioner vents and tell me it was too cold but would never move from that chair. I love you Alfred and you will forever be in my heart

“ Would like to first give my condolence to the family, it is with great sadness to know that he is gone. I remember when we were little and my mother was alive we would go up there on weekends and spend time with the family and those were the happiest moments of my time in growing up. Everybody would party and have food galore, Those were the good times that I will never forget and will always remember and cherish. RIP Primo

“ My fondest memory of Alfred was his “old man” cane, if you’ve seen it then you know what I’m talking about, he enjoyed making novelty items. He made the coolest ice chest out of old fencing. He is the inspiration that started me working with old fencing and making things.
