“ I loved having conversations with my great Aunt Alice every chance I got. She always had fun things to say and great advice. She gave me some advice at my wedding I haven't forgotten. (LuLu you may remember). She mentioned after many years married to my great Uncle Albert, there was one key to success I should know. Get on good terms with your in laws and we both had a great laugh together! And she was right! Thank you Aunt Alice for taking care of me with your advice in a way that was always memorable. You will missed and remembered always.

Our condolences to the Jimenez family for this great loss. We wish we could be there with you and we love you all, Valerie (Perez), Ryan, Charlie, and Andrew Dawson

“ I celebrate her life and remember her as a loving wife, mother, sister-in-law and very loving and caring daughter-in-law to my parents Rosa and Francisco. She was a caregiver always, unselfishly taking care of everyone; never mentioning or talking about it That was just Alice being Alice. I loved her the moment she came into the Jimenez family and learned much from her. She always told it like it was, no excuses, no sugar-coating; she just let you know what she was thinking. I enjoyed being with her and sharing a Coronita with her occasionally. We were very close and confided many things to each other. I haven't lost a sister-in-law, I've lost a sister, and will always remember her laughter. "Be with God, Guera," (as my dad used to call her.) and I will always cherish your memory.

Your sister-in-law,
