ALICIA CUELLAR CULLEN, was born on November 23, 1942, in San Antonio, Texas, to Refugia Moran Cuellar and Fernando Cuellar. Alicia is preceded in death by her son, Lawrence C. Cullen, Jr., and her parents.

Alicia is survived by husband Lawrence C. Cullen, son Michael Patrick who lives in Santa Monica, California, two brothers Fernando, Jr. and Robert Cuellar, as well as her sister-in-law and best friend Olga Cuellar. Alicia's love will also be remembered by her nephew, Richard Cuellar and his daughters Alexandra Nicole and Elise Katherine; nephew David Cuellar, his wife Heather and daughters Madison Grace and Brynn Morgan Cuellar, and niece Emily Ruth Cuellar Perlaky and her husband Gergo Perlaky. She is also survived by her daughter-in-law Jennifer Deloach, and her two grandchildren, Ryland Jackson Cullen Deloach age 12, and Marjorie Elizabeth Cullen Deloach age 9. Alicia had a special bond that will never fade with her Aunt Aurora Moran Chavez. She also leaves behind several aunts and cousins from both her mother's and father's family.

She married Lawrence Larry C. Cullen on December 14, 1968. Her strength in deep family roots and their love have kept Larry deep in the heart of Texas instead of returning to his roots in upstate New York. Her warm and cheerful spirit won the hearts of his family and brought many of them to visit here in Texas.

She was raised in a loving home where she developed strong traits that served her well in life. She had an infectious love for life that will live on with all who knew and loved her. She will be greatly missed. While we grieve for our loss, we know that God has put His arms around Alicia and taken her home.
