

Alina Arias Solarte

March 9, 1941 - June 17, 2019

Alina Arias Solarte, of Cali, Colombia, born on March 9, 1941 in Popayan, Colombia, to the late Maria Magdalena Solarte and Luis Gerardo Arias Fajardo, passed away at age 78 the morning of June 17th, 2019 in San Antonio, Texas. In the late 60's Alina owned a hair salon after graduating from a 7 year program at a local Trade School in Cali Colombia. She was in the Personal Care Services industry as a Professionally Licensed Hairdresser at Alina's Hair Salon in Cali, Colombia. Alina was the beloved wife of Henry Muñoz Leal. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Edgar Arias and Jorge Alberto Arias; and sister, Beatriz del Socorro Arias. Alina is survived by her sons, Henry Muñoz Arias and Jose Manuel Muñoz Arias; daughter, Luz Alina Muñoz - Rivas; brothers, Dario Arias and Francisco de Jesus Arias; sisters, Maria Elisa Arias - Herrera, Stella Eugenia Arias, and Luz Marina Arias; and grandchildren, Amberlynn Muñoz-Hutchings, Devin Muñoz, Derek Mitchell Muñoz, Michaelangelo Rivas, Joshua Jaron Muñoz, Henry Alexander Rivas, Edric Nathan Muñoz, Joseph Aaron Muñoz, and Kaylin Eliza Muñoz. Her great-grand children include: Kaiden Hale Muñoz, Emerson Jade Muñoz, Lily Elaina Muñoz, Alezae Lalanía Hutchings, Elviana Deysi Hutchings, and Leighton Page Muñoz. Alina loved singing, dancing, crafts, crocheting, embroidery, sewing, genealogy & family history. Her father doted on his firstborn and often danced the Argentinian tango with her while in her youth. As the oldest, her mother depended on her for advice and council to help raise her eight siblings and could always rely on her sharp wit and natural wisdom. Her favorite hymn was "Love At Home" by John Hugh McNaughton and she and her children routinely sang this hymn for Family Home Evening. It was at this time that she often sang to her children, invited missionaries to teach in her home and spotlighted her children's talents in singing and dancing. Alina often sang "Vida" by Los Soñadores (lyrics below) for them. She was a Sunday School teacher for the youth, Temple Preparation Teacher and a member of the Relief Society at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at Elmhurst Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Rego Park, New York. Services will be Private.
