

Aline Ida Welch

March 17, 1909 - November 4, 2007

Aline Ida Welch born on March 17, 1909 in San Antonio joined her family who preceded her in death in heaven: Husband: Tom Welch, Son: J.T. Welch, Daughter: Gloria Chaney, Parents: Gretchen and Fred Soele, Sister: Margarete Dye, Brother: Fred Soele, grandchildren: Gregory and Jeff Schaefer and Fred "Bub" Chaney. Survived by: Daughters Tommy Gene Sherry and Sandi Poe, Grandchildren: Debbie Hill, Cheryl Wilson, Lauri Mike Schaefer-Zapata, Traci Sean Davis, Great Grandchildren: Jason, Courtney, Hailie, and Hannah. Aline lived in San Antonio all her life. She was a graduate of Brackenridge High School, Class of 1926. Aline had a drapery and slip cover business for many years. She would make draperies and beautiful ball gowns for herself, family and friends. She also made beautiful, detailed dresses for her daughters and would still be putting the hem in as they were walking out the door. Later, she made matching dresses for her grandchildren for all the holidays and costumes for their school programs. Cutting a pattern from a newspaper was common for her. During WWII she re-upholstered the seats of the damaged airplanes that would come back from combat. She loved to dance and was a member of the Farmers Daughter, Roaring 20's, The Moose and Hermann Sons Lodges. She loved plants and being in the yard. She belonged to the Botanical Garden Club. She was a life long member of Highland Park Lutheran Church. Most of all we will remember her sparkling blue eyes and her loving ways. A very special thank you to the staff, residents, and friends at Salado Creek, her extended family for many years.
